

Youth Board Member

Calling young rewilders!

Passionate about rewilding? Ready to make a difference?
This is your chance to play a key role in shaping the future of rewilding in Europe!

Join Rewilding Europe's Supervisory Board

Rewilding is rapidly gaining momentum as a new approach to nature recovery at scale, inspiring a new generation of changemakers. To strengthen this movement, Rewilding Europe is looking for a dynamic and visionary early-career professional (under 30 years old) to join its Supervisory Board.

This is a unique opportunity to gain hands-on experience in being a board member, and learning what it takes to help govern a frontrunning rewilding initiative. In return, you will use your energy, insight, creativity and understanding of young people's perspectives to contribute to the governance and strategic development of Rewilding Europe, and to help drive us to take the European rewilding agenda forward.

With exciting initiatives mushrooming all across Europe, the high-profile rewilding movement is playing an increasingly influential and impactful role in European conservation. Founded in 2011, Rewilding Europe is spearheading this movement, with operational landscapes stretching all the way from the Nordics and Portugal to Bulgaria and Ukraine.

About the Supervisory Board

Established in 2012, Rewilding Europe's Supervisory Board comprises experienced, highly skilled and forward-looking individuals from across Europe. All committed rewilders and experts in their own field, they provide invaluable input as they help to guide and develop our initiative. As a board member, you will be expected to:

- Have a comprehensive understanding of rewilding and Rewilding Europe.
- Show a rewilding vision and ideas on how to achieve it.
- Bring skills, perspectives, knowledge and networks that would strengthen the board.

The Supervisory Board operates entirely on a voluntary basis, without any remuneration but with reimbursement of expenses.

Commitments and what to expect

As a board member, you will play a key role in shaping the future of rewilding in Europe, which requires active engagement. This includes:

- Four meetings per year: two in-person in the Netherlands, two online.
- Good preparation: board members are expected to review materials in advance and contribute meaningfully to discussions.
- An unforgettable annual field trip: The entire board visits one of Rewilding Europe's landscapes each year. This is a great opportunity to witness rewilding in action, see the impact firsthand and connect with the people making it happen.

How to apply

Are you interested and ready to take on this role? If so, we invite you to send

- A personal statement explaining your motivation, what rewilding means to you, and what you would bring to the board.
- An up-to-date resume.
- Two letters of support, at least one from an established conservationist or rewilder.

Send your application to info@rewildingeurope.com by March 28, 2025.

Applications will be assessed by a nominations committee, who may conduct interviews before deciding on a final recommendation to the board.
